Very Little Combining Done

Harvest Operations Are Again Delayed By Rain

The weather is still the main topic of conversation, but the kind of weather now prevailing is anything but popular.

Following the snowstorm, a strong Chinook wind rapidly cleared the fields of snow and on Monday and Tuesday swathing was again getting under way in many parts of the district, with prospects that picking-up of swathed grain could start on Wednesday or Thursday.

But another set-back was in store and on Tuesday afternoon rain brought harvesting to a halt. Precipitation ranged from a very light drizzle in town to heavy showers in some parts of the district and at the time of writing no immediate prospect was held out by weather observers for the return of good weather.

Considerable swathing still remains to be done and combining hardly got well started. Estimates are that 75 percent of swathing has been completed and only about 3 percent of combining done.

Northern Towns Getting Gas

More than 400 families and 50 commercial consumers in Picardville and Westlock will soon be using natural gas discovered in their own district.

Under the terms of an agreement announced this week, Canadian Delhi Oil Ltd. will provide gas from two of the Company's wells—Union-Picardville No. 1 and Delhi-Union-Picardville No. 2—to Westlock Utilities Limited, which, in turn, will distribute and sell it to the two communities.

The natural gas will be purchased at the wells by the Utility Company and carried through a twelve-mile pipeline to Picardville and Westlock. The pipe has already been laid and, in some cases, household connections have been completed. Wet weather has delayed construction work but about half the total number of consumers will receive service before winter sets in and the balance will be hooked up by next fall. Residents have been using coal for both cooking and heating.

The initial contract between Westlock Utilities and Canadian Delhi is for a ten-year term but the agreement will remain in force as long as gas is produced from the wells in economic quantities.

At peak requirement, the utility will use about one million cubic feet of gas daily. The two wells are capable of producing 43.4 million cubic feet a day. Additionally, Canadian Delhi brought in another well in the same area last week—Delhi-Union-Picardville No. 3—and its three million cubic feet of daily output will also be available to the utility if needed in the future.

The hospital at Westlock will be among the first to benefit from the natural gas which has the high efficiency rating of 1040 B.T.U.'s.

The No. 1 well, with a daily capacity of 39.8 million cubic feet, is Canadian Delhi's largest producer in Alberta. It was purchased from Union and Imperial Oil Companies as part of Delhi's overall program to assist in developing an exportable surplus of natural gas for Trans-Canada Pipe Lines Limited. Delhi's first drilling effort in the Picardville field resulted in a dry hole. The second well, with an output of 3.6 million cubic feet daily, was brought in last May and the third well was completed only a few days ago. Canadian Delhi has spent over $160,000 in this field alone in its multi-million-dollar search for reserves of natural gas in Alberta.

"This is only one of our proposed hook-ups of local gas fields to small communities in Alberta," said Frank A. Schultz, Vice-President of Canadian Delhi and Trans-Canada Pipe Lines. "It is our program," he stated, "to serve the small communities at the same time as we are gathering gas for our main transmission line. We recognize that Alberta gas is for the Albertans first."

In support of Canadian Delhi's export application, DeGolyer and MacNaughton, leading geological survey company, submitted a report to the Conservation Board last week which set forth reserves of natural gas in Alberta now available for sale amounting to 3.4 trillion cubic feet. The Board

M.B.E. FOR CANADIAN FLIGHT LIEUTENANT

The U.K. Air Ministry has announced the award of the M.B.E. to Flight-Lieutenant Joseph Charles Laurier Roger Labelle, 32 of Montreal, for bravery which helped to preserve the lives of five of the six men in an aircraft which made a forced landing in heavy seas west of Tangier on March 10.

The aircraft sank before a dinghy could be fully inflated, and all six occupants were swept into the sea, one becoming entangled, head downwards, in a dinghy rope. Flight-Lieutenant Labelle, who was signaller, held his radio in one hand while he helped to free the entanglement, to right the dinghy, and to assist into it all but one of the crew, who was swept away and drowned. Then, for more than three hours, between bouts of seasickness, he in turn attempted to work the radio, baled out, and threw himself about the dinghy in order to prevent it capsizing in the 30-40 ft. waves.

Flight-Lieutenant Labelle joined the Royal Canadian Air Force in 1941 as a wireless operator and was commissioned in 1944. In 1947, he was commissioned in the General Duties Branch of the Royal Air Force. He has been stationed at Gibraltar, where his wife lives, since 1949.

has estimated that Alberta will require, for its own needs, 4.4 trillion cubic feet of gas in the next 30 years and has stated that only the amount of proven reserves in excess of this figure will be considered for export. The geological report represented 16,500 hours of study in less than half of Alberta's gas fields and prospects.

Urge Action By Parliament

Lions Convention Endorses Distinctive Canadian Flag

The Lions Clubs of Canada are going all out to foster a more enthusiastic spirit of patriotism here in Canada. As an important step towards national unity, the Lions, inspired by their Code of Citizenship and Patriotism, unanimously endorsed a design for a distinctive Canadian flag at their recent National Convention where Mr. Jack P. Farlow, of Woodstock, Ont., was elected President of the Canadian Association of Lions Clubs.

This design consists of a field of ten bars, five blue and five white, denoting our ten Provinces, with the Union Jack in the upper left and a red maple leaf in the field with a white Fleur-de-lis superimposed upon it. The flag retains the national colours red, white and blue.

The Lions feel that this design is in perfect harmony with the Canadian Coat-of-Arms and, in true heraldic fashion, tells the story of our country, its history and traditions. It should be remembered, they point out, that it was the French who opened Canada up from the Maritimes to the Prairies and, while the British won the right to rule Canada on the Plains of Abraham, the French were given freedom and equality under the Union Jack. French-Canadians fought along side their English speaking compatriots in the War of 1812 to keep this Canada.

The main thing the Lions like about this design is that it is distinctly Canadian. They point out that this flag would not be confused with the Red, Blue or White Ensigns of England yet the Union Jack signifies our membership in the Commonwealth. The bars would remove any suspicion of colonialism and, being dark

Thanksgiving Day Is October 8th

Thanksgiving Day this year is on Monday, October 8, and will be observed as a public holiday. Essential businesses in Vulcan will be open for harvest needs but all other businesses will observe the holiday. Housewives are reminded to stock their larders for the long week end.

Special services in local churches will mark the occasion.

Back in Canada After Five Years

Back in her homeland after five years residence in Australia is Mrs. Iris Dalziel, now living with her husband and two small daughters at 3328 Carson St., Burnaby, B.C.

Mrs. Dalziel is the former Iris Shimp of Vulcan, and it was here she met and married her Australian-born husband, who was then a Flying Officer and pilot instructor at the Vulcan R.C.A.F. school. Her sister, Inez, is Mrs. Tom Bogner of Vulcan.

Mrs. Dalziel's mother, Mrs. M. A. Shimp of Spokane, Wash., is a house guest at the Dalziel home in Burnaby for a month.

Mrs. C. E. Martin Dies at Vancouver

A resident of the Vulcan district for many years, Mrs. Carrie Elizabeth Martin, aged 77 years, died at Vancouver on Sunday, Sept. 30.

Funeral services will be held in the Vulcan United Church on Friday, Oct. 5, at 3 p.m. and interment will be made in the Vulcan cemetery.

Infant Buried Here

Theresa Jane, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hiltz Jr. of Vulcan, died in the Holy Cross hospital, Calgary, on Sept. 26.

She was born in Vulcan. Besides her parents she is survived by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hiltz Sr. of Calgary and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Randle of Farrow.

Rev. O. H. Rolfs conducted private services in Leyden's Chapel of Remembrance on Friday afternoon, Sept. 28. Burial was made in the family plot, Vulcan cemetery.

U.N. Official Visits Korean Hospital

To help the Korean people in rebuilding their war-shattered land, the United Nations this year established the U.N. Korean Reconstruction Agency, in which 43 nations are now cooperating. Here, J. Work To Commence Immediately

Will Re-gravel No. 23 Highway From H. River to North Corner

No. 23 highway from High River east to the Vulcan Corner, 12 miles north of Vulcan, will be re-gravelled this fall, according to an announcement made last week by the Department of Public Works.

Highways Minister Gordon E. Taylor announced the award of a $36,294 contract to replace the gravel surface on about 39 miles of southern highway to N. Gallah and Sons Company Ltd., Calgary. The 28 miles of No. 23 highway to be re-gravelled is included in this contract, the other 11 miles being the highway from Black Diamond to Longview.

This portion of 23 highway, known as the Sunshine Trail, is at present in bad shape, with very little gravel left on the surface, and is very rough. Work on re-surfacing it is expected to commence immediately, according to the Hon. Peter Dawson of Champlain, M.L.A. for this constituency.

The review states that an excess of total merchandise imports over exports had become "an unfamiliar experience for the Canadian economy." Such excesses occurred in only four of the 35 years between 1914 and 1950. Between Confederation and World War I, however, "a deficit was the rule rather than the exception."

Excess of merchandise imports over exports by the end of 1951 might be of the order of $400-$500 millions," the bank suggests. In addition, "invisible" transactions such as interest and dividend transfers, freight and shipping charges and tourist expenditures are expected to involve net outpayments not "very greatly different" from last year's figure of $489 millions. "On the plus side," the review continues, "there are net exports of non-monetary gold which have been running at the rate of $160 millions a year."

In all, the Bank concludes, Canada's trading deficit in goods and services for the full year "could be in the neighborhood of $800 millions, of which perhaps $500 millions was recorded in the first half of the year."

The snow fencing should not exceed 50 feet in length, which means that the storage will be just under 16 feet in diameter. Grain should be delivered to the centre of this storage area so that the pile rises evenly along the walls. Care should be taken to see that the paper is snug against the fencing as the grain fills the storage. When this type of storage is used and it is likely that the grain will have to be left for a period of two weeks or more, it is advisable to place 8 inches or a foot of straw on the ground under the grain. If the storage is required for just a short time, cleaning off the loose surface earth is all that is necessary and will allow easy and clean recovery of the grain.

Woven wire can be used in much the same manner as the snow fencing. The interior of the wire must be covered with some tough material and the following have been found satisfactory: canvas, jute sack, straw, sheaves of hay. Again, the circumference of the storage should be in the neighborhood of 50 feet. As with the snow fencing, straw on the bottom of the storage is advisable where storage is necessary for any appreciable length of time.

A mimeograph on the above and other methods of emergency grain storage is now available and may be obtained on request from the Extension Service, Alberta Department of Agriculture, Edmonton.

Canada's Imports Exceeding Exports

Montreal, Sept. 24—"Canada is passing through a phase, akin in a sense to the early years of her history, in which she is importing more goods and services than she is exporting and in which she is keeping her international payments in balance with the aid of foreign capital," comments the Bank of Montreal in its latest monthly business review. Despite a seven-months' excess of merchandise imports over exports of $332 millions, her "international working capital" of foreign exchange reserves has not been significantly impaired.

The review states that an excess of total merchandise imports over exports had become "an unfamiliar experience for the Canadian economy." Such excesses occurred in only four of the 35 years between 1914 and 1950. Between Confederation and World War I, however, "a deficit was the rule rather than the exception."

Memorial Swimming Pool Finances Improve, 1951

In spite of a cool summer the Vulcan Memorial Swimming Pool enjoyed one of its best years financially and this was made possible by the good support of the people of the Town and District. Particular mention is given to the local branch of the Canadian Legion, who have given the swimming pool their whole hearted support this year.

Cost of operation was quite high due to the fact that a swimming instructor was hired for the season. The instructor, Don Whiteman, proved to be quite capable and he was a great help in effecting the smooth operation of the Pool. The Lions Club have approved the hiring of Don Whiteman again next year and he has intimated that if at all possible he will return to Vulcan for the 1952 season.

A list of receipts and expenditures for the years' operation is given below.

DRIVERS TESTS TO BE INTRODUCED IN ALBERTA

The provincial government has not altered its policy to introduce drivers' tests. A definite statement to this effect was made recently by Premier Manning.

The government has no definite date in mind for the new system to be established. At the last session of the legislature, it was hoped that some form of tests would be in operation during the current year.

It appears that the present plan envisions tests for those who have been convicted of certain traffic offences.

Statistics have shown that a great percentage of motor accidents involve drivers in the youth age category. This also has been borne out by studies made by automobile insurance firms which raised the cost of insurance in certain youth age groups.

Also, it has been pointed out that in other provinces and in various states, comprehensive tests of drivers are carried out, with a resultant reduction in motor accidents.

United Kingdom's import restrictions may soon have to be tightened.

Need For Foreign Investors

Turning to the question of foreign capital, the bank says, "it is hardly to be expected that the enlarged program of investment in productive assets could, under tightened domestic monetary conditions, be financed entirely within our own borders."

The B of M concludes with an emphatic statement that it does not suggest that a protracted period of living beyond her means internationally would, for Canada, be "a likely or desirable development." Corrective measures would "undoubtedly" be taken if an adverse trade balance threatened to reach serious proportions. The bank says that, for the time being, however, the situation operates as "a means of relieving domestic inflationary pressures, since more goods and services are flowing into the country than are flowing out."

A.T.A Sub-local Names Officers

The first meeting of the Vulcan A.T.A. sub-local was held in the school on Sept. 25 with 18 members present.

A new slate of officers was elected with Mrs. Ruby Campbell as the new president; Harold Ulmer as vice-president; Miss Winnifred McIntyre as Sec.-Treas.; F. Yeomans (Brant) as representative to the local and Mrs. K. Brooks as press correspondent.

Various subjects were discussed and it was decided that the October meeting be held on Tues., Oct. 9 in Brant.

Former Resident Dies At Age 86

John Henry Kaiser, 86, of Vulcan, died at Medicine Hat Saturday, Sept. 29. He was born in Hoffenthal, Russia and came to America in 1907 and settled at Rockyford, Colorado. After having returned to his homeland in 1912 he again came back to this continent, coming this time to Alberta, in 1925. In 1931 he became a citizen and lived at Vulcan until 1947 when he and his wife went to live in Medicine Hat at the Haven of Rest.

Mr. Kaiser is survived by his wife, Sophie; two sons, Alex, Vulcan; Henry, Russia; one daughter, Elizabeth, (Mrs. Bill Hiltz) Calgary; twenty-seven grandchildren and also great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by six children, three brothers, and two sisters. He was a member of the Evangelical United Brethren Church at Vulcan. Services were held in the United Church, Wednesday, at 2 p.m. Rev. A. W. Roth officiated and Rev. F. E. Vorrath assisted. Interment was in the Vulcan cemetery. Snodgrass Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Extends Thanks To X-ray Committee

The Editor, Vulcan Advocate, Vulcan, Alberta, Dear Sir:

This is to let you know how much we appreciate all the cooperation extended to the Alberta Tuberculosis Association and the Department of Public Health by the Vulcan Advocate and by the people of Vulcan and district, in the Survey conducted there by the Christmas Seal Mobile Chest X-ray Unit.

Much credit is due to the Vulcan Chest X-ray Survey Committee for their untiring efforts in this campaign, and to the citizens of Vulcan who cooperated in bringing this project to its conclusion.

Mr. E. R. Baxter, Director of Surveys, has told me of the many courtesies he experienced, and of the considerable amount of work cheerfully done by the Vulcan Survey Committee and their helpers. It would be impossible to name all of them but I might mention Mr. Bill Shields, Mr. Bob Munro, Dr. Alan Tompkins, Mrs. Mabel Robinson and Mrs. Mabel Ren. I would ask you to convey our sincere thanks to them and to all their associates for a very fine job.

Our records show that there were 1,671 free chest X-rays given at the Vulcan clinic. Preliminary interpretations of these films by the Tuberculosis Division, Department of Public Health reveal: Probably pulmonary tuberculosis is active, 9.

Probable pulmonary tuberculosis is inactive, 16.

Other abnormalities, 24. Attention is drawn to the fact that this is purely a preliminary report and is not to be considered final until all abnormalities have had further complete examination.

Yours very truly,
C. Robert Dickey,
General Secretary.

IN MEMORIAM

McINTYRE—In ever loving memory of Anna Clara McIntyre, who passed away October 4, 1937.

"And death itself, to her, was but The wider opening of the door That had been opening, more and more, Through all her life, and ne'er was shut.

"And never shall be shut. She left The door ajar for you and me; And looking after her, we see The glory shining through the cleft."

—Always missed and remembered by her husband, sons, daughters and grandchildren.

Ergot Reported

During the past few weeks, several reports of ergot in rye have been received at this office. Ergot is caused by a fungus, and is one of the most common plant diseases of rye. It is easily identified by the large purplish black bodies, which develop in place of the kernels. Ergot not only damages the grain by reducing yields, but if present in livestock feed may do serious harm. Ergot has also been known to occur in wheat, barley and some of the grasses, such as, slender wheat, quack, brome and timothy. Ergot rarely occurs in oats.

All livestock producers should be familiar with the dangers encountered when feeding ergot-infested grain or roughages to animals. Humans have been known to suffer from ergot poisoning in various parts of the world where rye bread is commonly eaten. In Russia it was found that rye flour containing 0.15 percent ergot caused ergotism.

When feed contaminated with ergot is fed to livestock it causes abortions, and the disease ergotism. In many cases, a very small amount of ergot has caused abortion. The ergotism disease may be serious and is marked in its early stages by irritation and pain in the extremities of the body and later by dry gangrene or mummification of tail, ears and perhaps feet. It has been found that cattle and horses are most susceptible to the injurious effects of ergotism.

All feeders should exclude ergotized material from the livestock feed if at all possible. This is particularly in the case of cows, ewes, sows or mares. From information that is available, feed containing 0.1 percent of ergot must be regarded as potentially dangerous.

tile field. Such fields are composed of porous tile laid in herring bone or similar pattern, depending on that most adaptable to the lie of the land. The porous tile is laid with open joints (about 1/4 inch), the upper surface of the joint being covered with tarpaper to prevent the incursion of soil. The tile is usually of 4" diameter and is laid "at a depth of 1 1/2 to 2 feet on an even grade of 1" to 2 ft., on the main line; and 1" to 10 ft., on subsidiaries. The length of such tile depends on the type and the amount of sewage, 150 ft. is usually recommended for a normal sized family and in average soil conditions. Sewage is discharged from the siphon chamber in bulk into this tile system and "weeps" away through the porous tile and open joints. A well constructed field should last for a number of years providing the septic tank is maintained satisfactorily. The average defective field is so rendered by solids passing through the septic tank and plugging the tile. A field in Alberta is more likely to operate satisfactorily if it is started in the spring or early summer rather than just before freeze up. Legislation states there must be no weeping tile within 50 ft. of any water supply.

An alternative to the field is the leeching cesspool or dry well. These are merely a cribbed pit 10 ft. deep and 6 ft. sq. satisfactorily covered. Cesspools are prohibited in Towns and Villages unless preceded by a Septic tank. Furthermore they must not be located within 75 ft. of a drilled well or 150 feet of a shallow well. The satisfactory functioning of a cesspool rests to a large extent on the maintenance. The amount of grease entering the cesspool must be controlled, and accumulation of sediment regularly removed. In any case however, the grounds around the cesspool may become sodden, in which case a "Blender" must be constructed close to and connected to the first.

Water tight cesspools are most unsatisfactory and are not recommended.

Health News...

The disposal of effluent liquid from the septic tank is at times, problematical. Three methods are reported to the Health Unit during the month of September.

Chicken pox 7; Rubella 3; Measles 2; Mumps 3; Scarlet Fever 5; Poliomyelitis 3.

Nature's first defence against soil erosion is the vegetation which covers the earth.

The weather man doesn't own a kitchen sink because that is the only thing he hasn't fired at us this year. Last week's snow storm and freezing temperatures has left untold damage behind. Most of the grain still standing will be cut one way. Grain in the swath will be soaked for days. We are hoping for the Indian summer they tell us always follows a September snow.

Mrs. Hank Borchers of Scandia is looking after Ernie Heather's household during Mrs. Heather's convalescence.

ARROWWOOD

The people here think that they really have something to brag about in the line of garden stuffs. Mr. Hurley Williams took in an 18 lb. cabbage the other day and they said there was one larger that they never weighed. Mrs. Chester Arney weighed one of their vegetable marrows and it was 15 lbs.

On Tuesday, Sept. 25th some of the ladies had a birthday party for Mrs. Hay Helm, at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Williams have moved back to the farm and Mrs. Henry is preparing to move into her house in a short time.

This week saw Mr. A. Dettler finish tearing down the old restaurant building on main street and they have left the old fireplace standing so anyone that needs to warm themselves in winter might build a fire and enjoy it.

Some of the vans have been putting in very long hours trying to get the pupils to and from school lately as the roads have been in a very bad slippery state and even high grades don't seem to help in these conditions.

Mrs. W. Taggart, Mrs. S. Brown and Mrs. C. Lund sang, "Savior Again, To Thy Dear Name We Raise", accompanied on the violin and piano by Mrs. J. Hough and Mrs. T. Clarke.

It was 21 years ago this fall that the old Willard school was purchased by the community and moved into Queenstown for a church. Jim McLaughlin and a contractor from Gleichen did the moving.

Two years ago the Ladies Aid canvassed for a fence, they did so well that not only a fence was built and painted, but the entire interior of the church was redecorated. Joe Hough, did the work. The Aid members also planted trees and flowers around the church.

The weatherman is smiling down upon us once more and we are enjoying much needed harvest weather. We were luckier than most places in not receiving such a heavy blanket of snow. Two to three inches is the most we got and the temperature right here did not go lower than 22 above.

There had been a few acres combined of barley and wheat before the storm. Nels Nelson was the most fortunate with 10,000 bushels of wheat to his credit, some of it going 50 bushels to the acre, and the grade No. 2. A few farmers have all their grain swathed, others with hardly any. Frances Hall of Salmon Arm, B.C. has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. Taggart for the past two weeks.
